TWO HUNDRED MILLION A YEAR

For Pensions if New Law is Passed.

Congress Will Be Asked to Raise Pay of Soldiers On Age-Pension List During Short Session of Congress—Pension Committees Rushed and Cannot Begin To Handle Applications—Thousands Are In Need of Help.

Washington, Dec. 30.—On the plea that something must be done to relieve Congress of the pressure of private pension claims and care for soldiers of the Civil and Mexican wars in their old age, the two Pension Committee in Congress will try at this session to secure the passage of the Sulloway-McCumber bill raising the pay of soldiers on the age-pension list.

The estimated cost of carrying the proposed law into effect would be $45,480,468. The Pension Appropriation bill which already has passed the House carries about $153,000,000 and if the Sulloway-McCumber project goes through it will run the pension roll up to nearly $200,000,000 annually within two years.

In the past few years Congress has become practically a pension bureau. There is scarcely a member of either Senate or House who is not besieged by hundreds of beneficaries pleading for relief by special act. Working day and night at forced draft, the Pension Committees, even with omnibus pension bills carrying provision for many veterans, have not been able to bring relief to more than about 2,000 applicants annually. In comparison with the thousands knocking at the doors of Congress for help, the batch of private pension bills put through during the past few years is but a "drop in the bucket."

In the present Congress alone over 20,000 private pension bills have been referred to the House Committee, many more to the Senate Committee. In this vast number, Representative Fuller asserts, "are thousands of blind, paralyzed, bedridden and pain-racked soldiers with honorable records whose cases can never be reached under the present system."

For this reason he and other members of the committee declare the time has come for something to b edone to "relieve" the Pension Committees of the tremendous work piled on them. Instead of taking up the cases individually, it is now proposed to put all soldiers on an equal footing by the Sullaway-McCumber bill, which carries age pensions representing an increase of $45,000,000 annually. Over a hundred veterans are dying every day, more than 3,000 a month. The average age of the old soldier is now between 65 and 72 years. There are 450,000 on the pension roll under the McCumber age act of 1907. Nearly 300,000 are between 65 and 72.

The plan of the McCumber-Silloway bill, which already has been favorably reported to the House, is to grant to all persons who served 90 days in the Civil War or 60 days in the Mexican War a pension of $15 a month when they reach the age of 62. This is $3 a month more than they now get under the law of 1907. There are 93,589 of them. At an average annual increase of $36, it is estimated that this will add over $3,000,000 to the pension budget. It is proposed to pay those 65 years old $20 a month. This is a new rating. Under the existing age law, there is no rating between the ages of 62 and 70 years. There are 184,577 between the ages of 65 and 70, so that an increase of $96 annually for each of them would add another $17,000,000 to the pension budget. It is proposed to raise those over 70 years from $15 a month to $25 a month. There are 101,778 soldiers in this class and $120 increase annually for them would add another $12,000,000 to the pension payments. It is also proposed to raise the pension of those over 70 years of age from $20 to $36 a month. This would be an increase of $192 annually, and as there are 63,461 at this age, it would add $12,187,000 to the pension payments. The whole increase would foot up $45,489,486 annually to start with.

Sermon To Young Men.

Rev. Shuford Peeler will preach a special sermon Sunday evening to young men, his subject being "Things to do during the New Year." There will be selections by the male quartet and other special music. All are invited to be present.

MRS. EDDY TO RISE

Follower Says Founder of Christian Science Will Be Seen On This Earth Again.

New York, Dec. 30.—Augusta E. Stetson made the positive statement last night that she believes Mary Baker Eddy will "demonstrate" over death and show herself in tangible form not only to her followers but to the world at large.

"I am convinced," said Mrs. Stetson—"nay, more, I know, and every true believer in Christian Science must know, that Mrs. Eddy will make a manifestation, will reveal herself to me and to others, to the outside world, the unbelievers, too.

"The same situation exists today as when Jesus of Nazareth died and was buried. After three days He manifested Himself, to prove that there is life after death. Mrs. Eddy will do the same, for she occupies in the world of today precisely the same position that Jesus occupied in His day.

"It may take, will take, longer for Mrs. Eddy to pass through the experience of material death to the stage of demonstration of everlasting life. It may not occur for years, or it may occur tomorrow or next week. But she will manifest herself, and all men shall know of it.

"Those in the church who profess doubt of such a demonstration are like the disciples who doubted till they saw and felt of Jesus. I shall see Mrs. Eddy again, and I shall walk by her side, holding her hand, along the path that leads to life which has no death. All men who will believe will be shown how they may, by spiritual means, demonstrate over death, but first they must await Mrs. Eddy's manifestation.

"Yesterday I would not answer questions relating to the expected demonstration by Mrs. Eddy—her resurrection, as some call it. I felt then that the hour for me to speak had not come. Today I am convinced the time is proper. From all quarters I am receiving reports of demoralization and sadness in the field of Christian Science because of the delay in the demonstration and because of the spreading abroad of declarations that Mrs. Eddy will not manifest herself.

"To say that Mrs. Eddy is gone forever is to deny the very principles of Christian Science and to refute the teachings of her life and her works.

"The age of the gospel is closed," went on Mrs. Stetson, speaking in the most earnest way. "A new era is opening, the era of the one thousand years which the Bible tells us will follow the second appearance of Christ, the opening of the Millennium. Christ means Truth, and Mary Baker Eddy was Truth on earth again. I am waiting and watching, and my students are waiting and watching, for we know the moment is at hand when God will prove, in the person of Mrs. Eddy, that she was his inspired mouthpiece to teach and unfold the glories of Truth and Love and Life which are represented by Christian Science."

New Year's Day At Centenary Church.

Centenary church will observe New Year's Day by assembling, as near as possible, the entire membership of the church at 11 o'clock tomorrow. Special efforts have been made to secure the presence of all the members, as well as many friends from outside. Centenary has just closed a very successful year, 46 new members received, new parsonage bought, pipe organ installed and paid for, $1200 contributed to Children's Home, and all the assessments paid in full as usual. The prospects for the new year are bright, five new stewards have been added to the board, the latest and most approved financial methods have been adopted, and the salary of the pastor has been increased.

Death of Little Child.

The two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Carolina street, died yesterday morning at one o'clock, following an illness of pneumonia. The funeral will be held from Buffalo Presbyterian church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

NEW LAWS ARE BEING PREPARED

For Enactment by General Assembly.

Proposed Changes In State Banking Laws—An Act Will Be Asked For That Will Adjust Financial Status of Towns In Participating in Special Taxes Now Monopolized by State and Counties.

Raleigh, Dec. 30.—Merida Lyda, a young white man, was brought to the penitentiary today to serve twelve years for killing his father. He submitted to the charge of manslaughter. He was brought by Deputy Sheriff T. B. Connor.

The Carter Mercantile Co., of Winston-Salem, was chartered today with $25,000 capital by D. S. Carter, H. B. Pulliam, B. C. Alspaugh for a mercantile business. Another charter is for the Young Steam Baking Co., of Charlotte, capital $25,000, by R. E. Young, C. Keuster and others.

At the request of the corporation commission under which he operates State Bank Examiner J. K. Doughton is preparing recommendations to the General Assembly for needed changes in the state banking laws. He says the recommendations will include a number of changes and in fact, it will amount to the enactment of a new act entirely that will embrace all the best features of the present regulations and a number of new features that are believed to be needed. In his travels among the banks he has discussed the matter of changes and believes that the recommendations he will make will receive the endorsement of by far the greater number of the bankers in the state.

A special committee of the North Carolina Municipal League that has just met here has directed City Attorney Walter Clark, Jr., of Raleigh, a chairman of a sub-committee, to prepare a bill for the General Assembly that will enable any cities and towns in the state that desire to do so to adopt the commission form of government. Capt. J. D. McNeill, as chairman of another committee, is directed to prepare a bill that will better adjust the financial status of the cities and towns in participating in the special taxes that are now monopolized by the state and the counties. Then there is another committee with Max L. Johns, of Laurinburg, as chairman, that is to prepare a bill looking to a better adjustment of the road improvement work as between the county and the town. These committees are to have these bills ready to report to the annual meeting of the association that meets in this city January 17 when it is intended to press upon the legislature the necessity of early action.

A "Hobo" Sunday School Class.

In the Sunday school at Centenary Methodist church there is a class which was organized last July, which has always been known as the "Hobo" class. It was so named at the time of its organization because it was composed of business and professional men who had not been going to Sunday school. Alderman B. E. Smith is the teacher, Mr. C. C. Hudson is the president, Mr. S. M. Bumpass is the vice president, and Mr. E. E. Bain is the secretary-treasurer. The hour of meeting is 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The auditorium of the church is their class room. A hearty welcome is in store for all new comers.

A QUIET MARRIAGE

Miss Ethel Hutchinson Becomes the Bride of Mr. Grady Broome.

Mr. Grady Broome and Miss Ethel Hutchinson came over from Reidsville yesterday and were married in the evening by Rev. J. W. Goodman at his home on Chestnut street.

The marriage was a quiet affair, there being only a few present to witness the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of ex-Sheriff J. S. Hutchinson, of Reidsville. The groom is employed by the Frank Penn Tobacco Co., of Reidsville, and will be remembered in Greensboro as having tried out for the baseball team here last season, but was released on account of player limit.

WILL ENTER RACE FOR SENATORSHIP

Kitchin And Aycock After Position.

Reported That They Will Seek To Succeed Senator Simmons When His Term Expires In 1913—Will Be a Hard Forght Contest If All Three Democrats Aspire to Position As Each Has Strong Following.

Washington, Dec. 30.—A special dispatch to The Baltimore Evening Sun has the following story of the opposition that will face Senator Simmons of North Carolina, in his race for re-election to the United States Senate: Indications point strongly to the fact that Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, will have opposition for re-election. His present term will expire March 4, 1913. If he lives until that date he will have rounded out 12 years in the Senate.

According to information that has reached Washington during the past week, both Governor William W. Kitchin and former Governor Charles B. Aycock are to make the race for the senatorship. It is understood that they will announce that they are candidates in the very near future.

This information was disclosed by close personal and political friends of the present and the former Chief Executives, who have been mingling with the public men within the past ten days.

The story that has been going the rounds in a quiet sort of a way, of course, is that former Governor Aycock has about decided that he will no longer resist the demands and importunities of his friends to make the contest for the senatorship and that he will make announcement of his intentions early in the coming year—possibly some time in January.

Although Governor Kitchin was in Washington about ten days ago, he did not then discuss the senatorship, so far as is known, and he even made a friendly call upon Senator Simmons.

But the information from one of Governor Kitchin's most intimate friends is that he is fully determined to contest for the Senatorship and that he will take advantage of the first favorable opportunity in the next few months to make known his ambitions to the people of North Carolina.

Some well-known North Carolinians are of the opinion that if ex-Governor Aycock concludes to announce his candidacy in the near future it is very likely that Governor Kitchin will also be heard from about the same time.

"What a contest that would be," said a well-posted North Carolinian today, "with Simmons, Aycock and Kitchin in the field for the senatorship. Three able men and among the State's most strongest."

Governor Aycock was urged to make a dash for the senatorship four years ago, when Senator Simmons was up for re-election, but he then declined. Since he retired from the executive office, however, he has been prominently mentioned in his State for senatorial honors.

Senator Simmons has the reputation of being rather an adroit politician, and his personal acquaintance is exceptionally large in North Carolina by reason of the fact that for 12 consecutive years he was chairman of the North Carolina Democratic State executive committee, assuming that position during the presidential election year of 1892.

When Mr. Cleveland became President for the second time he appointed Mr. Simmons collector of Internal Revenue, and while holding that position is said to have greatly increased his acquaintance and power among the local political workers.

With about ten years' service in the Senate, Mr. Simmons naturally has been advanced to the point where he is serving on several of the most important committees. The four leading ones of which he is a member are finance, to which all tariff and financial matters are referred and which passes upon many of the important nominations sent in by the President; commerce, which handles the river and harbor bills, and an assignment to this committee is keenly sought by most Senators serving their second terms; inter-ocean canals, which has a watchful eye over matters concerning the Panama Canal, and Cuban relations, which in the next few years may have several very delicate questions to adjust if all reports from the island formely dominated by Spain are true. MISS BYRD HOSTESS

Charmingly Entertained Thursday Evening At Her Home On Tate Street.

Thursday evening, at her home, 399 Tate street, Miss Clara Byrd was the hostess at a charming entertainment. The Seniors, members of the faculty, and some other young ladies of the Normal, who are spending their holidays here. The house was daintily decorated in green and red, the emblems of Christmas. After the guests had played numerous games and enjoyed some splendid music, refreshments—cream, cake, and mints, were served. These also followed the color scheme, as did the little green and red bell-shaped souvenirs which were distributed to all the guests of the delightful occasion.

MISS BRADY ENTERTAINS.

Enjoyable Affair In Honor of Miss Ruth Burton, of Reidsville.

The Junior Philathea class of Centenary M. E. church was entertained very delightfully Thursday night at the home of Miss Beulah Brady, on South Elm street, in honor of Miss Ruth Burton, of Reidsville.

Miss Brady and Miss Thelma Sanders, received the guests in the hall. Misses Mary Sanders, and Nell Brady presided over the punch bowl. The Brady home was artistically decorated for the occasion.

A number of enjoyable games were played during the evening and delicious refreshments were served.

ALL FACTIONS TO BE PRESENT

At Democratic Celebration in Baltimore.

Grand and Glorious Time Prepared For by Committees on Arrangements—Speakers Will Be Announced Soon—Many Guests Will Attend—Col. Bryan Cannot Attend and He Deems Best to Not Send a Letter.

Baltimore, Dec. 30.—Acceptances to the great Democratic celebration which will be held in Baltimore January 17 are pouring in to the conference committee from leading Democrats in every State.

From present indications about 300 invited guests will be present, and every faction and wing of the party will be well represented.

The rush for banquet tickets is on, and those who have not yet subscribed, says the committee, should delay no longer, or they will not be accommodated. The committee has placed a limit of 1,000 for the banquet, and when this number is reached no more will be sold.

The conference committee will meet Tuesday afternoon at the Eutaw House, when it is expected that the list of speakers for both the massmeeting at the Lyric in the afternoon and the banquet at the Fifth Regiment Armory at night will be completed. There will probably be about 10 speakers, none of whom will be Marylanders.

Members of the committee are highly gratified over acceptances and the rush for tickets and say that with the prominent speakers present the celebration will be the greatest of its kind yet held.

Among those invited are Democratic members of the Sixty-first and Sixty-second Congresses, Democratic Governors, members of the Democratic National Committee and a number of leading Democrats who do not hold public office.

Mr. William Jennings Bryan, who was thrice Democratic candidate for President, has declined an invitation to speak. He sent word yesterday to Albert J. Almoney, secretary of the committee, as follows:

"It will be impossible for me to be present, and I hesitate to send a letter to be read at the celebration, lest it might prove a discordant note, if, as I would infer from the preliminary arrangement, those who originated it are dissatisfied with the last Democratic national platform. That platform was satisfactory to the party two years ago and is satisfactory to the rank and file now. The victory of last month was, in my judgment, largely due to the fact that several planks of the platform had already been vindicated by events, and events have since the election vindicated other planks."

TRUST IN TIPS IS REVEALED

Suit Brings Out That Partners Control Many Concessions.

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The Chicago Tip Trust is in danger of dissolution. Bernard Venburger is suing his partner, Jacques Rousseau, for an accounting. According to the bill filed in court the trust buys concessions from the leading restaurants, installs check racks, boot-blacking stands and, in many instances, manicuring stands and provides attendants for each. The bill then represents:

"That there are no fixed charges for services rendered, but they are wholly paid for by 'tips' from such patrons.

"That the business is very profitable and that, particularly on a holiday or any other special occasion, the 'tips' would not only be very numerous, but very largely from 10 cents up to $10 from an individual."

Chicagoans heretofore have believed that they were tipping an employe of the restaurant.

A Short Docket.

Will Mitchell and John Mesley were arraigned in Municipal court yesterday morning on the charge of assault. Judge Eure fined them $5 each and costs. Clifton Donnell and Will Gwynne were charged with engaging in an affray, judgment being suspended on payment of costs.

A HARD FIGHT.

THE STORY OF A FAILURE

The writer was called to the 'phone by a prominent attorney of San Francisco who said that a friend of his was dying of Bright's Disease and that if we could do anything to send the treatment and a physician. Both were sent. The doctor phoned back that the patient was at the end of a year's fight with chronic Bright's Disease and was almost a skeleton, and was in coma, and that the priests had administered the last rites and that the attending physicians had told the patient's wife that it was only a question of hours and he declared with considerable spirit that he had practically been called in to sign the death certificate. The patient, a San Francisco business man, was in charge of the nurses. They said that nothing had passed into or out of the patient's stomach for twenty-four hours; that it had ceased to act—would not hold peptonized milk—and that they were waiting for the end. Our consulting physician did not think that there was one chance in a thousand, but started a hard fight for that chance. Jumping into a carriage, he went to Wakelee & Co.'s procured a high twenty-inch tube and the necessary adjuncts and returned for an all night's fight to keep the patient alive. After four hours with emulsions through the high tube the impacted feces were removed and, as the stomach had almost ceased functioning, the patient was fed and given both treatment and food per rectum. The food and treatment were administered and withdrawn every three hours, night and day. The patient was given an alcohol and emulsion rub alternately every three hours. He was given no food by the stomach for ten days except a little champagne and cracked ice. The second day he began to move a little. The fourth day he was beginning to clear mentally. In two weeks his stomach began to accept chicken and solid foods. In a month he was walking around the room, and in two months (contrary to the strenuous advice of the physicians) he insisted on taking a Southern trip. He was not as strong as he thought and suffered a relapse. The physician was telegraphed for and went South to attend and bring him home, but the trip and consequent relapse was so serious that the patient expired on arrival in San Francisco.

This was a battle against tremendous odds and it is our belief that it would have been won if the patient had followed the physician's advice and given up the trip until he was stronger.

The attorney mentioned who called us up by 'phone was the Hon. Barclay Henley, the ex-member of Congress and well-known lawyer of San Francisco. His offices are in the Pacific Building on Market street and he will doubtless confirm these facts to anyone who may be interested. We refer to this instance and his name in connection therewith without his consent. We could hardly afford to do this if the above was not strictly true.

We consider the treatment that this physician used in this case to aid the Renal Compound as so important that it was at our request written up in detail giving the various prescriptions and formulae. We will mail it to physicians who may have critical cases like the above.

Bright's Disease is now curable in a great majority of all cases by the new emollient treatment—Fulton's Renal Compound. It may be had in your city of FarissKlutz Drug Co.

Literature mailed free. Address John J. Fulton Co., 645 Battery St., San Francisco. We desire to hear from and advise with every case not making the usual recovery.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit.

"LOVE GLIDE," SKATING CRAZE

It Takes a Boy and a Girl to Do It, and It Ends With a Kiss.

Boston Post.

By the discovery of the "love glide," the very latest skating novelty, a little group of Middleboro's young men and women skating experts have made possible a new ice evolution whose popularity, it is said, will never be excelled.

The "love glide" necessitates two skaters, one of each sex.

The figure skated is in the shape of a heart. One skater goes backward and one forward.

After the evolution has been completed and when the pair reach the finish point, they are supposed to kiss each other. This adds what the Middleboro discoverers of the "love glide" believe is just the right climax.

Moonlight nights are said to be best for perfect success with the "love glide."

The grape vine, the double grape vine, the Dutch roll, the figure 8, the figure 3, the spread eagle—even the waltz and the tutti frutti two-step—all these had been tried in previous years with delight to the skaters. This season they were weighed in the balance of public opinion and found wanting.

It was desired to get something more novel, more alluring, more delicate than any of these time-worn amusements. Moreover, the members of the select little clique had become past masters and mistresses of these difficult evolutions. Some of them had won prizes in skating contests for fancy stunts, and all of them had thoroughly versed themselves in the pretty pasttime. For most of them cutting their names on the smooth surfaces on the frozen pond was as easy as writing it on a sheet of foolscap. Thus when the "love glide" was hit upon everyone was enthusiastic.

It consist of a certain airy, nebulous, evanescent movement. The young man puts his arm around the young lady's waist and the two stand face to face. As in a round dance, the young man holds the lady's right hand in his left. (For variety this rule may be reversed.)

Then the young man starts off skating backward, beginning with his right foot and the young lady starts forward, beginning on the left. Thereafter follows a series of graceful gliding movements rhythmic and picturesque.

Those who participated in it assert that it combines the highest ecstatics of the dance with the most advanced delights of the skating: It has been said that skating is the poetry of motion. The "love glide," being a combination of the waltz and the finest of skating figures, is declared to be the acme of all recreative delights.

When the kiss was introduced at Middleboro at the end of every third round it was felt that it made the "love glide" absolutely perfect. The kiss came just at the right intervals, neither too soon nor too late, according to the devotees of the new skating sport.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers.

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Howard Gardner.

SYSTEM HELPS IN MOVING.

Reasonable Care in Packing Will Result in Fewer Breakages.

New York Press.

If you must fold your tents like the Arabs and as silently steal away to a new house and home, why not do it correctly? The right way to move is just as easily followed as the wrong; the disastrous results of broken china, ruined furniture and lost, strayed or stolen articles are for careless movers only. Probably the key to success in the ordeal that every being encounters is the little word "system." Follow a plan, and what you cannot keep in your head put down in a notebook or on the boxes that hold the different things.

First of all a thorough cleaning is necessary. If the dust and grime of weeks be removed before jacking, much of the labor at the end of the journey can be obviated and comfort correspondingly increased.

China should be packed in barrels, with the edge of each plate or saucer down. You will recall that if you drop a plate and strike the floor on its edge it will not break. It is the same old principle of the strength of the arch which allows only a small portion to be struck at a time. Use plenty of excelsior or hay, and slip in layers of this between the china pieces. Glass should be given an additional protection by a wrapping of tissue paper or cotton wadding and placed in boxes plainly marked to give a hint to the movers.

Pictures must be protected at the corners by felt pads. This is easily done and saves wooden and gilt frames from the battering on the contact with other furniture. Allow a little of the face of each picture to be seen. This will sound a warning to the one who handles it, sometimes with an appalling lack of care. In genral follow the scheme of the big stores, which have a very small percentage of breakages in delivering goods. Thin paper glued around excelsior makes excellent wrapping for flat articles.

The legs of tables and chairs need your attention. Cover with generous layers of newspaper—a great friend on moving day, by the way—and tie with coarse twine. Yes, of course, it takes time! Anything does that is worth while.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, childblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

Look For the Hose With This Mark on the Toes

There are many kinds of guaranteed hosiery but they are all imitations of the original "Holeproof."

When your husband goes out to buy sox, tell him to insist on "Holeproof"—tell him to look on the toes for our trademark.

This means more than you think—it means that if any holes appear within six months we give you new hosiery free.

But that is not all, the hosiery itself is more stylish and comfortable than any other on the market.

FAMOUS Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The makers use only the finest and softest cotton from Egypt and the Sea Islands. They pay 63 cents a pound, but could buy ordinary cotton at 12 cents a pound.

The yarn is three-ply in the body and doubled to six-ply in the heels, toes and knees. Common hosiery is made of two-ply yarn throughout yet it costs you as much as "Holeproof."

Comfort is supreme in "Holeproof"—the fabric is as soft and smooth as silk. Style is increased for the hosiery is shaped to fit the ankle like a glove fits the hand.

Men's hose come in eleven attractive colors and women's in six. Price $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Children's hose, in black and tan, at $2 a box of six pairs. Please come in and see this hosiery today—it costs no more than the ordinary.

RUBBING UP THE ARMS.

Said to Have Excellent Results In Cases of Fainting.

When my wife faints which is miserably often, says a writer in the London medical journal, the Lancet, I do not apply friction in the usual absurd way—rubbing backward and forward, which must alternately check and accelerate the passage of the blood—but, taking hold of one of her hands with my left hand, I place the thumb and finger of my right hand tight round her wrist and then pass them firmly up toward her elbow.

Having brought them back loosely to the wrist, I pass them firmly up again, and when I have repeated the operation two or three times, sometimes on both arms, I have the pleasure of hearing the ejaculation, "I feel better now." When I first had recourse to this means of resuscitating my lady she exclaimed instinctively on two different occasions, without being at all aware that I had had any particular intention, "Oh, that is what I seem to want!"

From the invariable and immediate effect of this mode of friction I flatter myself that it is not unworthy the notice of the medical practitioner in the friction of cholera patients, a process which should be much oftener resorted to and more energetically persisted in than it generally is.

GERMAN RED TAPE.

A Lesson In Picking Up Things in the Streets of Berlin.

Take care how you pick up a thing that is lost in Berlin. The other day one of our deputies going through the Prussian capital on his return from a convention at Frankfort noticed a key at the edge of the sidewalk. He picked it up to hand it to a police agent. The representative of the city police refused to take it, saying, "You should take this key to the special bureau of things that are lost."

"Very well. Where is it?"

The agent named the street.

"Is it far from here?"

"A half hour, three-quarters of an hour if you don't walk rapidly."

The deputy replaced the key on the pavement. "Some one else will pick it up," he said.

"Not at all," said the agent in a commanding tone. "You should have left it where it was, but now you are obliged to go to the bureau. If you don't I'll make a complaint against you and you'll be fined, perhaps given a day in prison. That's the law."

The deputy was compelled to obey orders. Since that day he carries his hand in his pockets.—Cri de Paris.

The Hangman's Stone.

There is a large bowlder lying in a field near Foremark, England, which is known throughout Derbyshire as the "hangman's stone." The exposed portion of the bowlder rises about six feet above the surface of the surrounding field and has a narrow ditch or indentation running across the top. The mark, so tradition says, was made in this way: A sheep thief in the dead of night, while leaning against the bowlder to rest, placed his booty above on the flat surface of the stone. The man had the sheep tied with a rope, and in its effort to escape the creature slipped on the opposite side, and the rope, catching under the thief's chin, choked him to death. The indentation in the rock was made by the friction of the rope while the dying man was engaged in an effort to extricate himself.

A Good Loser.

Arthur's, Almack's, Bootle's and White's were the chief clubs of the young men of fashion. There was play at all, and decayed noblemen and broken down senators fleeced the unwary there. Charles Fox, a dreadful gambler, lost £200,000 at play. Gibbon tells of his playing twenty-two hours at a sitting and losing £500 an hour. That indomitable punster said that the greatest pleasure in life after winning was losing. What hours, what nights, what health did he waste over the devil's books! I was going to say what peace of mind, but he took his losses very philosophically. After an awful night's play he was found on a sofa tranquilly reading an eclogue of Virgil.—From Thackeray's "The Four Georges."

The Poster.

The poster may be said to date from 1836, when a design by Lelance was used in France to advertise a book, "Commend Meurent les Femmes." His example was very quickly followed, most of the early designs being printed in black on white or tinted paper. The color poster began about 1860 and attained to the dignity of a high art with Jules Cheret, "the father of the pictured placard." The first English theatrical placard to attract widespread attention was one of Fred Walker's advertising a dramatic version of "The Woman In White."—London Chronicle.

A Hurry Call.

The political boss of a small city drove his buckboard at top speed down the main street on the morning of an election.

"Hey, Johnnie," he yelled to his son, "git down in the Fourth ward quick! There's people down there votin' as they blame please!"—Success Magazine.

If the Republican insurgents cannot put up with National Chairman Weeks, maybe they would like to come under the banner of National Chairman Mack.

President Taft is not averse to having "lame ducks" support him for a renomination. That is, if there is anything in the rumor that the North Carolina Republican Committee endorsed him at his own request.

William F. Sheehan, of New York, is out in a formal announcement of his candidacy for Depew's seat in the United States Senate. He might possibly be an improvement on Senator Depew, but the Democrats of New York State should be able to name a decidedly more suitable man.

It is claimed in some quarters that the Democrats are going to find themselves badly split up over the tariff. It would be folly to hope for anything better. But the majority of the Republican leaders are wrong on the tariff. If the majority of the Democratic leaders will be right on it, the future is full of promise for the Democracy.

The Republican insurgents are said to be displeased at the selection of Representative John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, for Republican national chairman succeeding Mr. Hitchcock. Those insurgents keep right on giving proof that they are sincere in their insurgency. Mr. Weeks has the reputation of being a reactionary.

In the holding over of Postmaster R. D. Douglas it seems that neither the Morehead wing of the Republican party nor the Duncan wing scored. In the late war within Republican ranks Greensboro's postmaster marked time with a vim. That is not the way to make warm political friends, but it is also the way to omit to make bitter political foes.

The further this country gets away from the War Between the States the more costly does that war become. An increase of pensions to $200,000,000 a year is urged by the pension committees of Congress. But there is one good feature about the pension robbery. It serves as a warning against lightly rushing into a war. The prosecution of a war is just a fraction of the cost of it.

Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, is not afraid to strike out on new lines. He will not attempt in his forthcoming message to the Legislature to make known the needs of the various State institutions. On the contrary, he will have the men in charge of the several institutions address the Legislature concerning those institutions. This plan has at least the merit of directness and simplicity.

The nurses of the Taft boom for a renomination are working overtime. A late development is the announcement that Col. Roosevelt will work for him and nominate him. It has been suggested in Washington that Mr. Taft has made a fatal mistake in not contriving to have Col. Roosevelt denounce him. For it is recalled that all the candidates the Colonel denounced in the last election got elected, these including Judge Baldwin in Connecticut and Mr. Foss in Massachusetts.

Go away from home to get the news. Washington hears that the race for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Simmons will be a three-cornered one, the candidates being Mr. Simmons himself, Governor Kitchin and former Governor Aycock. Should the matter so eventuate, again would it be a case of the field against Kitchin. Gov. Aycock and Senator Simmons are old political cronies and they are not apt to get up a fight between themselves. But it is easy to conceive of them making common cause against Kitchin. We will hazard the guess that the race will be between Aycock and Kitchin.

TO ELOPE PROOF OF INSANITY

Brother of 78-Year-Old Romantic Maid Asks Court to Rule So.

New York, Dec. 30.—A romance of nearly 40 years' standing, which culminated in a 78-year-old maiden and a man of 62, eloping, had an anti-climax this afternoon when George Scott applied to Supreme Court Justice Clarke to have Mrs. Eleanor Scott Ongley, his sister, declared incompetent to manage her fortune of more than $250,000. Decision was reserved.

Mrs. Ongley (nee Scott), was the 78-year-old bride. On December 21 she slipped away from her home in South Brooklyn, and was married to Henry Ongley, a clerk in a city department. Miss Scott and Mr. Ongley were sweethearts many years ago, but drifted apart and Ongley married some one else. Less than a year ago his wife died. He and his former sweetheart met again and the old courtship was renewed.

TWICE WEDDED SAME WIFE

Thought Dead When She Married Another, Kept Secret Till He Died.

Wellington, Kan., Dec. 30.—Miles Park, his wife's first and third husband, is dead here at the age of 80, and the facts of his life came to light today. Park was married in Washington county, O., in 1852. In 1876 he left his wife and three children and went in search of fortune to the Black Hills of Dakota. He was reported killed by Indians.

Miner Harrod, a Kansas farmer visiting in Ohio in 1884, met Park's supposed widow, married her and came to live near here. Park, returning to Ohio in 1901, learned his wife still was alive. He did not, however, make known to her the fact that he also was alive until in 1907, when Harrod died. He then came to Kansas, recourted his wife and last year remarried her.

MISS BEALL ENTERTAINS.

Was Hostess At Charming Affair Last Evening.

The home of Miss Mary Beall, 400 Asheboro street, was the scene of an enjoyable reception last evening. Over fifty couples were the guests of Miss Beall and her spacious home was thrown open for the enjoyment of her visitors.

The young people thoroughly eonjoyed themselves. They scattered about, making themselves at home through the cordiality of their hostess. One room was given to the dancers, and, after this sport was tired of, the quartet of the Senior class of G. H. S., '09, held forth in a medley of songs. Delicious refreshments, consisting of cream and cake, were then served and soon after the guests dispersed, all voting the "party" the best of the season.

A Strange Likeness.

An extraordinary resemblance has recently been discovered at the London Natural History Museum between a specimen of the huge African elephant and the pygmy shrew mouse. Sir E. Ray Lankester suggested comparison of the two, and the result has been that practically every bone, muscle, blood vessel and nerve of the giant beast has been found identically reproduced in the little animal, which is scarcely two inches in length. In the museum a stuffed mouse has been placed between the fore feet of its enormous mounted prototype for the purpose of showing the curious likeness.

The Trouble.

"So she doesn't return your affection, eh? Well, I shouldn't get mad about that. What's the use of bothering about a girl?" said Watkins.

"I don't mind her not returning my affection," said Dobleigh, "but, confound it, she won't return my diamond ring, either!"—Harper's Weekly.

FENNEL.

It Is to the Italians Somewhat as Celery Is to Us.

"'Tisn't often that an Italian table d'hote furnishes anything that takes me back to my grandmother's time," said a New York man, "but that was my experience last night. The first nibble of something I'd supposed was celery sent my mind wandering back fifty years to an old New England village.

"'Fennel?' I asked the Italian waiter. He nodded and smiled and gave me the Italian form of the word, which I carefully wrote down on a scrap of paper, 'Fennocchi.' I suppose it showed my ignorance, but never before did I know that fennel is to the Italians what celery is to us. Evidently the large bases of the leafstalks are bleached in similar fashion, and from the way it was served I could see it was intended to be dipped in salt, as we eat celery. My obliging waiter told me that it was delicious as a salad and when boiled and served with cream sauce it made a popular Italian dish.

"But after all what did those culinary details matter? What really counted was that strange, penetrating flavor which took me back to my childhood. As I thoughtfully nibbled my fennel stalks the last fifty years seemed a blank. I was a child again, picking big clusters of yellow, aromatic fennel seeds in my grandmather's garden."—New York Sun.

AFRICAN WITCH DOCTORS.

They Make Themselves, Like Their Idols, as Hideous as Possible.

The most important period of the young African's life is that between youth and manhood (or womanhood). It is then that the witch doctor is extremely busy with his various mysterious rites. It is an important part of his calling to be hideous, as in most cases he undoubtedly is. A ridiculous mask covers his head, and wildcat or other skins are hung around his loins. Pigment of various colors is plentifully daubed over his body, and in this hideous state it is not to be wondered at that he strikes terror into the maidens' hearts as he dances wildly in the dim firelight, glaring at them with fiendish eyes. The timid young creatures are like the hare which trembles as the hovering bird of prey flutters over its head. Self will is crushed, and the erstwhile playful, willful child is transformed in most cases into a frightened creature, with, for the time being, no will of her own. It is a curious thing that nothing connected with what one may call the spiritual side of the blacks' life is ever beautiful. Their carved figures are always, to say the least, grotesque and calculated to frighten rather than comfort the bereaved.—Wide World Magazine.

Twenty Volume Novels.

The longest novels of today are pygmies compared with those published in the seventeenth century. Mlle. de Scudery's "Le Grand Cyrus" ran into ten volumes, its publication being spread over five years. And when it was translated, or, to quote the title page, "Englished by a Person of Honour," it appeared in five folio volumes of some 500 pages apiece. Another novelist of the same period, La Calprenede, was even more diffuse, one of his works, "Cleopatre," extending over twenty-three volumes. These novels found plenty of readers despite their enormous length. The Paris publisher of "Le Grand Cyrus" made 100,000 crowns by the first edition alone. Nearly all the works of Scudery and Calprenede were translated into English as soon as they appeared and many of them into German as well.—London Chronicle.

AN ENJOYABLE RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lambert Entertain In Honor of Their Cousin.

Thursday evening, from 8 till 12 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lambert entertained at their spacious home on West Lee street in honor of their cousin, Mr. Aubry Boulden, of Chicago, Ill.

Numerous games were indulged in and greatly enjoyed by the young people. Miss Era Fountain won first prize and Miss Mary Hiatt the booby in an interesting contest.

The house was artistically decorated throughout, the color scheme used in the parlor being red with an abundance of mistletoe. In the hall mistletoe was arranged in pleasing effect. The sitting room in green and white, while the dining room was charming in pink. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The guests were met at the door by their host and hostess, assisted by the honoree.

Among those present were: Misses Alexander, Myrtle Blaylock, Theodocia Blackmon, Lea Coggins, Maude Boulden, Mayme Fountain, Grace Hiatt, Era Fountain, Viola Medearis, Mary Hiatt, Mable Trent, Sula Medearis, Maud Trent and Miss Nell Knight, of Guilford College; Messrs. James Blackmon, Paul Burns, Exton Barker, A. C. Bonkemeyer, Lee Cranford, Herbert Fields, George Floyd, Porter King, Carl Knight, N. M. Sharp, Rufus Wysong, and Mr. Aubry Boulden, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Conner, Rev. and Mrs. Shuford Peeler and Mrs. W. F. Floyd.

YOUNG MEN ENTERTAINED

Y. W. C. A. Hostess At Delightful Reception Last Evening.

Last evening at the Young Woman's Christian Association a delightful reception was tendered the young men of the city.

The rooms were tastily decorated with flowers and plants, the mistletoe being hung in profuse clusters over the doorways and in other places where th young people were to pass or congregate for innocent confabulation and merriment. There were interesting games; lively and seasonable music furnished by Miss Beatrice Byrd and Miss Blair; and delicious refreshments, consisting of chocolate, wafers, and marshmallows, served by Misses May Hendrix and Annie Lee Blair.

There was a large number of young men present, and the occasion was indeed delightful and entertaining.

MR. W. A. WOOD DEAD.

Father of Mrs. W. H. Foushee Passes Away At His Home in Graham.

Mr. W. A. Wood, father of Mrs. W. H. Foushee, of this city, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at his home in Graham. He was 80 years of age and had been in failing health for about a year. He was confined to his bed only a few weeks. Mrs. Foushee was with her father when the end came.

The deceased is survived by his wife, five daughters and two sons. Mr. W. H. Foushee and family will go down this morning to attend the funeral, which will be held this afternoon.

Entertainment At Westminster.

Thursday evening was children's evening at Westminster Presbyterian church—that is, it was for children of the primary departments. Yesterday evening there was given an entertainment for the children of the intermediate and advanced departments. Several games were played, in which all joined heartily and with much merriment; Miss Margaret Wharton entertained the audience with three delightful recitations; refreshments were served; and everyone spent a most delightful and enjoyable evening. There was a large attendance.

TOOK A NOL PROS.

Case Against Dr. A. E. B. Alford Does Not Come to a Trial—Second Warrant Dismissed.

The prosecution yesterday afternoon took a nol pros in the case against Dr. A. E. B. Alford, charging him with seduction under promise of marriage. A second warrant was then drawn, charging him with advising an attempt at abortion, alleging the same to have occurred six years ago. The case was dismissed on the grounds that the offense as charged in the warrant did not constitute a violation of the state law.

The case was to have been tried before Justices Sechrest, Lovelace and Beeson, in High Point, yesterday afternoon and Dr. Alford, accompanied by his counsel, Judge Shaw, Stedman & Cooke and F. P. Hobgood, and a number of witnesses were on hand at the appointed hour. The prosecution asked for a continuance on the ground that a witness was in Norfolk and upon being ruled into a trial, counsel for the prosecution at once asked that the case be nol prossed, but drew up a second warrant as amove described. It was held after argument by counsel that the offense charged did not constitute a violation of the law so the case was dismissed. Not a single witness was placed on the stand, but several hours were consumed in argument of the motions before the court.

It has been contended all along by counsel for Dr. Alford that there was not the slightest evidence to prove the assertions of the prosecutor. The action of the prosecution in nol prossing the case would appear to-verify these contentions, and would indicate that counsel for the prosecution were imposed upon.

It is not believed that the matter will be pushed any further, but if it is Dr. Alford's counsel state that they have an abundance of evidence with which to establish his innocence.

GREAT SPORT

Fox Hunting Now the Order of the Day—Mr. J. M. Hendrix's Party Captures Fine One.

Fox hunting will now doubtless become the favorite sport of all such as love the chase, since Mr. J. M. Hendrix and a few associates experienced so much enjoyment Thursday afternoon in the first really successful fox hunt that has so far been chronicled for Greensboro this season.

Mr. Hendrix does not say just where the dogs scented the first trail, and further says he knows where there are six more of the same family, but he challenges the sporting fraternity of Greensboro to find them.

The ladies of the party, among whom were Mrs. Hendrix, Miss Douglas Hendrix, Miss Bryan, Miss Latham, and Miss Milicent Fisher, entered into the sport with great enthusiasm; in fact, they led the party. Miss Fisher proved herself to be most accomplished in this healthful and exhilerating sport, and sped her horse over ditches which the others would not dare attempt.

Fox hunting will now likely become a fad and the columns of the papers will be closely scanned to see who shall have been successful in capturing those remaining in Mr. Hendrix's preserve, which he says is not posted.

THEY SEPARATED.

But the Parting Was More Strenuous Than Jim Expected.

A man named Roynor when gold hunting in Alaska had as partner a venerable prospector, who went about habitually with his boot legs stuffed full of dynamite sticks. The old man had a pleasantly casual way of filling the stove oven with these sticks in order that they might thaw out there. Sometimes, too, he forgot them, which was imprudent, to say the least. Roynor was not at all of a timorous disposition, but the ancient prospector's reckless carelessness troubled his nerves. He remonstrated with him repeatedly and strenuously, but his protest did not seem to have the slightest effect.

"Jim," he said finally when driven to desperation, "if you can't be more careful with that dynamite we'll have to separate."

That night as he approached the shack a terrific concussion rent the air and knocked him insensible. When he recovered consciousness he perceived one of the aged prospector's legs lying near. He stared at it a moment meditatively.

"Well, Jim," he remarked at last sadly, "I guess we've managed to separate all right, particularly you, Jim!"—Minneapolis Journal.

You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago.' Howard Gardner.

Giving Him the Benefit.

"Have you investigated those charges against Biggum yet?" asked the intimate friend.

"Not yet," answerd the distinguished statesman who was a member of the investigating committee. "All we have done is to hold an informal meeting, and decided that he isn't guilty.'—Chicago Tribune.

Banks On Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingeck, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequaled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria and Debility. 25c. at Farriss-Klutz Drug Co.

A Tribute to Woman.

When everything around a man staggers and wavers, when all seems dark and dim in the far distance of the unknown future, when the world seems but a picture or a fairy tale and the universe a chimera, when the whole structure of ideas vanishes in smoke and all certainties become enigmatical, what is the only permanent thing which may still be his? The faithful heart of a woman. There he may rest his head; there he will renew his strength for the battle of life, increase his faith in Providence and, if need be, find strength to die in peace with a benediction on his lips.—Henri Frederic Amiel.

Easy Marks.

"Talk erbout yore easy marks," said Uncle Silas Geehaw, who had been passing a week in the city, "us rubes ain't in it with them air teown chaps."

"Did yew sell 'em enny gold bricks, Silas?" queried old Daddy Squashneck.

"Naw, I didn't," answered Uncle Silas, "but I seed a feller peddlin' artificial ice—hed th' sign right on his wagon—an' blamed ef th' chumps did not buy it fer th' real thing, by grass!"—Chicago News.

Lots of Nerve.

She—Goodness! Why, he already has all our tools, our axes, our hay-rakes and"—

He—I know. He just wants the horse and cart to bring them back.—London Telegraph.

CAT THAT TALKS

Billikin is a Waif, But There Are Aristocratic Felines Also.

New York Times.

Cats of high degree with proud and haughty manners were benched at the ninth championship cat show of the Atlantic City Cat Club, in the Concert Hall of Madison Square Garden, yesterday in conjunction with the Poultry Show which occupies the Garden arena during this week.

The only talking cat in the world is on view. Billikin is his name and is owned by Mrs. Julia H. Chadwick, of East Hampton, L. I. Billikin is a waif cat and no one knows his pedigree. Billikin makes a noise which sounds suspiciously like "milk" and he can also say "mamma." Another waif cat at the show is King Bronze, owned by Mrs. H. V. Furness, the secretary of the show. King Bronze is a tabby and Mrs. Furness coaxed him from a back fence in the darkest Harlem on a cold night a few weeks ago and took him home to a warm spot by the fireplace. The waif is entered in class 100 and may capture a prize.

The most mysterious cat of the show is White Ghost, entered by Mrs. F. B. Harris, of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. White Ghost has scared more than one sailor at the navy yard late at night by his mysterious wanderings. All the jack tars call the cat "Spoky," for they can spot him 100 yards away on the darkest night. Another unusual cat is Dixie, a cream colored neuter who has played more one night stands than any cat in the country. Dixie belongs to a well-known actress and is known in the hotel lobbies of many cities, for Dixie always goes on the road with its owner.

Wants To Help Some One.

For thirty years J. F. Boyer, of Fertile, Mo., needed help and couldn't find it. That's why he wants to help some one now. Suffering so long himself he feels for all distress from Backache, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, Lassitude and Kidney disorders. He shows that Electric Bitters work wonders for such troubles. "Five bottles," he writes, "wholly cured me and now I am well and hearty." It's also positively guaranteed for Liver Trouble, Dyspepsia, Blood Disorders, Female Complaints and Malaria. Try them. 50c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

A Sure Prescription for frosted feet or hands, and for healing wounds without scars or for relieving all Rheumatic pains and bruises, is Vick's Great Antiseptic Liniment. It is the Family Liniment of the day, 25 cents.

Many a fellow flatters himself that he is leading his bride to the altar, when as a matter of fact, she is pushing him there.

Home protection is true wisdom. Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve ought to be in every home for its quick relief and prevention of two dangerous diseases and the more common ailments such as Colds, Catarrh, Burns and Chaps.

LIKED CADETS BETTER.

Montana Girl Met President, But Had Eyes Only For Gray Uniforms and Manly Stride.

Wash. Cor. N. Y. Times.

Senator Carter escorted a bevy of beautiful Montana girls to the Executive offices today to see the President. While waiting in the corridor Senator Dick, of Ohio, came in leading a squad of West Point cadets, in long gray overcoasts. They, too, found corners and sat down also to wait.

There were seven parties ahead of them, and it was a dreary waiting. The cadets looked across through the corridor at the girls, and the girls now and then looked at the cadets. The Senators promptly sensed the situation and advanced toward each other.

"Senator," said Dick, "my boys would like to meet your girls."

"Bring them over, bring them over," said smiling Carter.

When an usher announced that the President was ready to meet all comers the Senators had a lively time segregating their charges and getting them into line.

"Well, aren't you glad you met him?" Senator Carter asked one of the seminary maids, as they emerged from the President's private office.

"Indeed I am," she replied. "I would not have missed the chance for anything. Isn't he perfectly adorable in that gray uniform?"

"I meant the President," explained the Senator.

"Did you?" the maid commented, quite unperturbed. "Mr. Taft is very pleasant. How much does he weigh?"

The Senator changed the subject. Then he mopped his brow. Senator Dick mopped his. Then they shook hands and led their charges away—in different directions.

A Queer Ceremony.

A queer ceremony is performed every year on the 8th day of September in the Valle Maggio, Italy. The region abounds in vipers. The celebrants form into a weird procession, each person—man, woman and child—carrying a huge figure of a snake stuffed with cotton. As they pass along they weep and lament, believing that by the expiatory ceremony they will render themselves proof against snake bites during the grape gathering.

Wretched Man.

Algy—By Jove! Miss Clara, how sweet you look in white! Do you know when I saw you coming across the lawn you looked so nice I thought it was Miss Julia—Harper's Bazar.

Generous.

"Some men say," remarked the beautiful heiress, "that I have no heart."

"Oh, that doesn't matter!" replied the poor but willing youth. "I'll give you mine."

Reflect upon your present blessings, of which every man has many, not upon your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Howard Gardner.

Avoid Danger

When you are sick, or suffering from any of the troubles peculiar to women, don't delay—take Cardui, that well-known and successful remedy for women. Thousands of women have used Cardui and been benefited. Why not you? Don't take any chances. Get Cardui, the old, reliable, oft-tried remedy, for women of all ages.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Luzania Morgan, Sneedville, Tenn., writes: "For ten years I suffered with the turn of life, and tried many remedies without relief. I had pains all over my body and at times I could not sit up. At last I took Cardui and now I can do my housework. I have told many ladies about Cardui and recommend it to all sick women." Try it.

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Santa At Palm Street Christian Church.

On last Tuesday night the Christmas entertainment at Palm Street Christian church, Revolution, was held, a crowded house being present to see Santa come down the chimney. The occasion was one of the most enjoyable of the kind ever given at the church, there being a faultlessly rendered program of recitations and songs by the children and appropriate music by the choir. The Baraca class presented Mr. W. C. Davis with a handsome present as a token of appreciation of his services in directing the music of the school; also to Miss Lelia Taylor for her services as organist. A well filled box was forwarded to the pastor, Rev. W. C. Wicker. Santa then came down the chimney and distributed gifts to each of the members of the school. The superintendent states that the past year's work was the most successful in the history of the school and the members are planning for even a greater work this year.

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

Mr. T. J. Murphy, Sec'y and Treas.
Gate City B. & L. Association,
Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge receipt of check for $1,000.00, being in full settlement of matured stock, 10 shares in Series No. 2.

I desire to compliment your association on the manner in which your affairs are conducted.

The returns you make net an investor about 6 per cent., and to the wage earner I most heartily recommend your association as a safe investment, one in which the small weekly deposits soon grow to a substantial sum, while the little deposits are scarcely missed.

With best wishes, I remain,
Yours very truly.

IT IS ALL RIGHT

to ask a friend to do you a favor when it is impossible to secure the favor in any other way. But why ask a friend to go on your bond as surety when the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can give better security than an individual at no extra cost for its faithful discharge of its duty as a trustee or executor or administrator. Why should you sign a bond by which your "heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are held and firmly bound" to pay for the default of others; perhaps after your death, every dollar of your estate? Tell your friend not to burden you with such a grave responsibility. Let the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company become responsible.

Talk this over with us—it will assist you.

Plans for the New Year

Your plans for the New Year will not be complete unless you have arranged for proper banking service. You should have a general account, subject to check, for handling the money that you use for current expenses. Then any money that you are not going to use immediately ought to be deposited in a Savings Account where the money will earn interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, compounded four times a year.
